GUESTS AT A CHIC P.M.:
Women National Press Club members and guests gathered yesterday at the Mayflower Hotel to hear Cleveland Amory conduct an autopsy on society's remains. He's author of "Who Killed Society?" published yesterday by Harper and Brothers. Among those introduced at the luncheon were Mrs. Raymond Taitt, who recently leased her Virginia estate, Glenora, to President-elect Kennedy, and Robert Amory Jr., brother of Cleveland and deputy director of CIA.
